Recognition of Visitors:

Andy Sheldon—Birdies for Books Presentation

Background:

On Saturday, June 18 the 1st Annual Bill's Auto Body - Birdies for Books Golf Outing was held at Oak Run Golf Course in rural Dahinda, IL. The brainchild of Andy Sheldon, the outing was organized with the specific purpose of supporting Galesburg CUSD #205 Schools. Specifically, the proceeds from the activity were tabbed for enhancing book inventories of the various school libraries. Andy has stated, "We wanted to do some good for the kids in the school district; investing in the future is what it's all about!"

In the Recognition of Visitors portion of the Board Meeting, Mr. Sheldon will be introduced. He will present the Board with a check for $4,200 that represents the profits from this year's golf outing. With the money, we will be able to purchase hundreds of books for the libraries in our schools. Beyond that, our students will be able to see the value of community spirit and the pride that the community has in District #205 schools. Andy is a great example of the young alumni of Galesburg CUSD #205.
